

DON'T LOOK BACK IN ANGER: A YEAR UNDER THE NEW ARBITRATION REGIME

Moscow, 27 November 2017
6 Gasheka Street, Ducat Place III
4:00pm to 7:00pm

Free of charge

Highlights

The International Chamber of Commerce Young Arbitrators Forum (ICC YAF) is organizing a seminar to discuss the changes introduced by the recent amendments to the legislation on arbitration and how they affect Russian and international practitioners.

Who should attend

This seminar is aimed at young arbitration practitioners (approximately 40 years and under): counsel, arbitrators, corporate counsel and academics. It is an ideal forum for young practitioners to exchange thoughts on international arbitration and to broaden their network in the region.

Programme

- Purely domestic Russian disputes: can they be referred to foreign arbitration?
- Corporate disputes: what this notion includes, and how and under what conditions such disputes can be arbitrated
- News from the ICC Court on cases involving Russian and CIS parties
- Criteria for the arbitrability of disputes involving public interests: disputes relating to public procurement contracts of the state-owned companies, concession agreements and contracts concerning the use of the public funds

Speakers

- Anton Asoskov, Professor, Lomonosov Moscow State University
- Pavel Boulatov, Counsel, White & Case
- Ziva Filipic, Managing Counsel, ICC Court
- Alexei Yadykin, Senior Associate, Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer

Moderator: Julia Popelysheva, Counsel, Clifford Chance
